7. Off-site Plans review – No questions

8. Spill Reports – Review of Email from Top Gear – No questions

9. Tabletop – Review by Bruce Degner – Well attended. Over 50 participants. All the items were covered well from the time the incident started and the hazardous materials team from Racine was approached by NWS with things they can provide. Bruce believes having attended several incidents he feels the training truly helps people to understand how these things work. Is hoping to have more of these trainings in the future

Donna – Was hoping more members attended thinks it is helpful for everyone to see the agencies work together. We had many agencies attend.

Warden Brooks – enjoyed the tabletop and seeing what other agencies can provide.

Sam Lamuro – thought the input was great and had really good takeaways.

Paul – How was this funded?

A. From Donna – A grant from the EPA

Adam – Great to hear what resources can be provided by other agencies. The range of people we had was phenomenal.

10. Haugom reviews the grant for the commodity flow study. Jefferson has never had one done.

Adam asks if the study will cover rail. Donna says no. Hable questions if most of the ethanol comes by rail. Donna explains we do not have a local overseas contact. Adam explains Valero is currently not producing any ethanol at this time. Limited Andy Koehler asks if the study will cover the pipeline.

Haugom Responds – No it is just highway transportation

11. Agency updates: Red cross – none, Salvation Army – None, SCWHIRC – Non
12. Tentative date 2/15/2023 – We will need a quorum Haugom states we will need to elect a new chair recommends Bruce Degner .
13. Hable asks Haugom does LEPC cover waste disposal for human waste in the communities. Hable clarifies he is speaking of sewage monitors.

Bols states it is the job of EPA and

Who regulates the Fort Sewage?

Bols states EPA or DATCP
