JEFFERSON COUNTY, WISCONSIN
LOCAL EMERGENCY PLANNING COMMITTEE (LEPC)
BY-LAWS

I) INTRODUCTION:

Federal Legislation enacted the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act, Title III (SARA Title III) which is also known as the "Emergency Planning and Community Right to Know Act". SARA Title III required states to adopt local emergency planning districts and create a State Emergency Response Commission. Wisconsin legislation created the Wisconsin State Emergency Response Board (SERB). The SERB established local emergency planning districts which coincide with county jurisdictional boundaries on July 17, 1987. The LEPC was confirmed by the SERB on August 13, 1987. Counties were required to create a Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC) in accordance with SARA Title III to oversee the hazardous materials planning and community right to know functions. These rules of operation are promulgated under the directive of SARA, Title 3 Section 301 (c).

II) AUTHORITY:

LEPC authority derives from the Federal SARA Title III legislation and Wisconsin Statutes treat any local emergency planning committee appointed by a County Board as a department of state government and any member of such a committee as a department of state employee.

III) ORGANIZATION:

A) GENERAL: The Emergency Management/Law Enforcement Committee (LE/EM), appointed by the Jefferson County Board of Supervisors, shall be considered the governing committee for the operation of the Jefferson County Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC). The Jefferson County LEPC shall consist of:

- State and Local Elected Officials
- Emergency Response Organizations
- Media
- Community Groups
- Representatives of facilities concerned with hazardous chemicals

The State Emergency Response Board (SERB) directed that the Jefferson County Emergency Management Director will be a standing member of the LEPC. Additional standing appoints shall include the Jefferson County Health Department Director, the Jefferson County Sheriff, and the Jefferson County Emergency Management Program Assistant. Appointments to the LEPC shall be made by the Jefferson County Board of Supervisors upon recommendation from the LEPC Coordinator of Information to the Jefferson County Board Chairperson. Unless otherwise noted, individuals appointed to the LEPC may serve for an indefinite term.

If a member of the LEPC consecutively misses three quarters of the LEPC meetings in a twelve month period, that member's seat on the LEPC may be declared vacant by the LEPC Chairperson. Positions vacated in this manner will be filled as described above.
