10. Report on Recidivism (CCAP) (Gusse)

Gusse said there was no change. Gusse said there have been no more OWI offenses, but there are a few other violations pending. There was a discussion on other ways that this information can be tracked. No action taken.

11. Update on Recidivism Council (Forseth)

Forseth said that the Council focused on mental health related to the COVID-19 pandemic. They discussed resources that they can share as they work with clients. These resources will be included with the minutes. They need to work with IT on secure websites in the jail. They talked about having graduates available to talk to people in the jail to talk about the program. They will be holding "Dinner and a Movie" to see "Written Off" on August 20th via ZOOM. Cauley mentioned that the County has a program called MyStrength that is free to employees and citizens. There is also a Peer Support Line that is available for people to call.
