Update ADRC & Aging Program 2021 Key Outcome Indicators – Dominic Wondolkowski, ADRC Supervisor

Wondolkowski shared updates on all Key Outcome Indicators and shared progress towards goals at this point in the year. All KOI's are on track or exceeding expectations at this time.

ADRC Program Update

Dominic Wondolkowski reported:

For August, 23 of 23 customers were provided enrollment counseling and information per the KOI guidelines, resulting in 21 enrollments and/or IRIS referrals. In two cases, the transfer and new enrollment was retracted and/or did not occur. The two members reside at the same Adult Family Home (AFH) and the provider may have allegedly influence choice to transfer MCO's rather than referring the members/guardians to the ADRC for unbiased options/enrollment counseling. The alleged conduct by the AFH provider was reported to the Regional Quality Specialist for review. From Jan.-August 2021, the ADRC completed 152 enrollments and/or IRIS referrals (52 more enrollments compared to Jan-Aug. 2020).

For the month of August 2021, the ADRC documented 748 calls; an increase of 149 contacts compared to July. With a steady increase in COVID-19 cases in Wisconsin, effective 8-17-21, ORCD again waived the face-to-face requirements for ADRC services.

116 of the 228 Farmer Market voucher coupons have been distributed. Marketing efforts in August included: (1) ADRC staff at Watertown's Library Farmer's Market –August 12th; (2) staff at Jefferson Public Library – August 25th; and (3) partnership with ADRC of Dodge County--August press release with the Get Healthy Watertown Coalition. Future marketing plans: Lake Mills FM venue on 9-15-21.

The Benefit Specialist programs will host an ABC's of Medicare Workshop on Sept. 22nd at 5-7pm at the Watertown Senior and Community Center. Medicare Part D Open Enrollment is Oct. 15-Dec.7.

I & A Specialist-Jennifer Bannister's last day was 8-27-21. ADRC has 2nd interviews scheduled 9-10-21.

Nutrition Program Update

Senior Nutrition Program Supervisor – Kimberly Swanson reported;

The Senior Nutrition Program served 3,432 meals in July 2021. There were 13 new Home Delivered Meal participants in August; the same as in 2020. There were 482 curbside carry out meals served to 89 unique participants in July. Swanson further stated that the Key Outcome Indicator to assess new Home Delivered Meal participants within four weeks of beginning meal service was met 100% of the time in July.

Transportation Program Update

Mobility Manager – Mike Hanson reported;

Ridership for the ADRC of Jefferson County Driver / Escort Service for August was 785 one-way rides. The number of new (first time) riders for August was 29.

The Key Outcome Indicator for our 85.21 Grant Transportation Service is to insure that 90% of qualifying medical ride requests are met. We achieved this goal with 100% of medical rides met in August. The Key Outcome Indicator for our 5310 Grant Transportation Service is to reach a recreational/nutritional (non-medical) ridership of 300 by end of 2021. So far in 2021, we have already provided 699 non-medical rides during January - August (671 with 85.21 funding). So far, we have provided 28 non-medical (recreational/nutritional/shopping) rides with 5310 funds.

The “Wednesday Walks” program offers a wonderful way to get fresh air, feel the sun, exercise, meet new people, and enjoy many unique attractions in Jefferson County. Our third event was held at Dr. J.S. Garman Nature Preserve in Waterloo and seven people attended. Our next and final event of the year will be held on September 22nd at Dorothy Carnes Park East.

Dementia Care Specialist Update

Heather Janes reported:

In the month of August, the DCS recorded 64 SAMS interactions. SAMS is a tracking data base where all phone calls, e-mails, and face to face visits are recorded. Other interactions such as marketing and outreach are recorded in what’s called SharePoint. This is where any collaboration with community networks, other DCS, radio interviews, evidence-based programs, book clubs, support groups, caregiver newsletters, presentations, and CPJC get recorded. The DCS completed 7 memory screens at the Jefferson Public Library this month. The Glacial River Memory Project facilitators met to complete planning stages of memory café, 1st memory café starts 9/13 with the theme as School Days.

Executive Summary

What is the Aging Unit as an Organization?

The Aging and Disability Resource Division of Jefferson County was redesigned and formally established in July of 2008 by encompassing all of the Older American Act Programs, Transportation and the Aging and Disability Resource Center into one unit.

Mission:

Our mission is to help people achieve their goals by providing them with comprehensive information so they can make informed decisions, and advocacy support to ensure that they remain in charge of their lives.

Vision:

The Aging & Disability Resource Center's vision is to provide information and assistance to a diverse community where the elderly, and people with disabilities, are respected, healthy and productive.

What does the Aging Unit provide for the Community?

Our purpose is to advocate for and help people achieve their goals by providing them with comprehensive information, assistance and opportunities to engage in the public policy process so they can make informed decisions and remain in charge of their lives.

The Aging & Disability Resources Division of Jefferson County Human Services encompasses many programs and funding streams that provide services and supports to the elderly, adults with disabilities, children with disabilities as they transition into adulthood, and persons with Alzheimer's disease or another dementia and their caregivers. Services and supports are intended to help people live with a high degree of independence in their own homes and communities for as long as they desire. We adhere to the principals of motivational interviewing to help people achieve their best possible outcomes.

What was learned through community engagement?

This planning period we found the most success with reaching people through paper and electronic surveys. We were able to share surveys with individuals coming to the vaccination sites for the COVID-19 vaccine. This was our most effective response method. We were able to reach just over 600 individuals through this collaboration with the county's Health Department. The ADRC and Aging Unit Advisory Committee was involved in the process of designing the surveys and determining how to best distribute surveys to reach the maximum participants possible. Advisory Committee members also shared their experiences in talking with others in the community about the surveys and 3-year plan.

Through our community engagement efforts this year we learned a great deal about the needs of our aging community. Many people suggested services that already exist in our county. This tells us that communication of available supports and services needs to be considered. We also learned that the COVID-19 pandemic has had a significant effect on our aging population. We received many responses related to getting out of the home and engaging in social activities with others, as well as a concerning number of individuals stating that one of the most important issues facing older adults today is isolation and loneliness. We believe this has increased over the past 2 years through the COVID-19 pandemic as people were not able to interact for fear of potential health risks.

Another area we found a great deal of interest was in transportation. The need for older adults to have access to safe and effective transportation not only includes the need for transportation to medical appointments, but also a significant desire for transportation related to social and shopping opportunities. We see the same social component in the responses to our meal program questions. At this time, we are only providing home delivered meals and curbside pick-up meals due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Many individuals expressed a desire to resume congregate meals or another way for individual to enjoy a meal with other, such as friends and family.

What are the current challenges and needs of the community?

One major challenge is in reaching individuals from diverse cultures. We were able to translate our surveys into Spanish and did receive several responses from these efforts, however the number of responses was small in comparison to the population reported in census surveys. Barriers such as language, fear of government, and limited access to Spanish speaking communities amplify these challenges.

Another challenge we face is the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. We would like to predict that the pandemic will end and services will return to pre-pandemic status. As we are currently seeing a variant of the virus is emerging and forcing us to consider health and safety risks over the needs of our aging community members for things like socialization events, evidenced based health education in group settings, and the re-opening of congregate meal sites.

We are seeing a greater need for transportation services across our county recently. With a growing population of community members over the age of 60, the need for transportation to medical appointments, grocery stores and pharmacies is also growing.

Over the next few years there will be additional funds available to help us meet these needs in our community. These funds will be very helpful, but may also create an issue when they are no longer available. There is concern for adding services to people with temporary funds then needing to pull or reduce services when the funding is no longer available. Coming up with creative ways to utilize the additional funds within the scope of the funds while also managing the longevity of the services will be challenging in itself.

What is the long path vision of the Aging unit:

This plan identifies goals in the areas of diversity, nutrition, caregiver support, communication, transportation, and addressing social isolation and loneliness. These goals were chosen to expand services and opportunities for individuals as well as maintaining cost effective budgets and are based on the results of the community engagement activities conducted over the year.

Describe the leadership of the Aging Unit:

Aging unit director:

The ADRC and Aging Unit Division Manager oversees the Aging Unit and ADRC of Jefferson County. This position works closely with DHS and GWAAR to assure that policy and procedures are followed correctly and that the Aging Unit and ADRC are good stewards of taxpayer dollars while serving the greatest number of people within Jefferson County. The ADRC and Aging Unit Division Manager works with the staff and leadership of all programs run through this division to guide programs and services. This division manager works closely with the Human Services Director and Human Services Board to oversee and direct work being done in the ADRC and Aging Unit Division.

Policy-making body

The commission is the policy making entity for aging services and an aging advisory committee is not the commission. Chapter 46.82 of the Wisconsin Statutes sets certain legal requirements for aging units.

See Membership of the Policy-Making Body for details.

Advisory committee:

Aging & Disability Resource Center Advisory Committee

This committee is actively involved in oversight and planning efforts on behalf of the division's constituents and is responsible for advising the Human Services Board about programs, policies and unmet community needs.

Nutrition Project Council

This council is responsible for advising the Nutrition Program Director on all matters relating to the delivery of nutrition and nutrition supportive services within the program area, including making recommendations regarding days and hours of meal site operations and site locations, setting the annual "suggested donation," and making recommendations regarding meal site furnishings with regard to persons with disabilities.

See Membership of the Policy-Making Body for details.

Context

Jefferson County is home to an estimated 84,701 residents. It is a primarily rural county, conveniently located between two of Wisconsin's major cities, and makes for an easy commute for residents working in or between the state's largest urban areas, Madison and Milwaukee. What are the age trends for older adults in the county?

Population projections for age 60+. Eric Grasso from the Department of Health Services shared projections of the total population and counties for the time span of 2015-2040 to help with preparing for upcoming estimated population growth. The population in Jefferson County is expected to increase over the next couple of decades for all ages of the population but the expectation of our very oldest 85+ is expected to double in population by 2040.

Jefferson County	2015	2020	2025	2030	2035	2040

How do the needs differ across race and ethnic groups, rural and urban, income levels, and generations?

Social and Economic characteristics: According to the documentation from the Aging programs in Jefferson County only 8 individuals identified as being from a racial/ethnic group other than White. We know based on recent census data for Jefferson County that the 2 largest racial/ethnic groups here are White (89.6%) and Hispanic (7.1%), with Other (3.3%) being the smallest identification group. The documentation of the Aging programs of Jefferson County does not reflect this same representation. Of the 1049 individuals documented less than 1% identified as being of a racial/ethnic group other than White.

The Older Americans Act (OAA) specifies that its funds should be directed to individuals with the greatest economic and social need (with particular attention to low-income older individuals, including low-income minority individuals, older individuals with limited English proficiency and older individuals residing in rural areas.” The growth of the aging populations in Jefferson County in the coming decades will create opportunities and challenges for our long-term supports and services. Between now and 2040, the proportion of the population age 65 and over will significantly increase so strategic planning of program services is needed to meet the demand of people who may have reported a disability and those who have a ratio of income below the poverty line to ensure there is enough service to meet the need. The projection is that 8.6 % of Jefferson County Seniors over the age of 65 are living in poverty, whereas, the state average is 7.6%.

Ratio of Income to Poverty: Ages 65 and Older*	Wisconsin	Jefferson County

How is the aging network organized to support older adults?

The ADRC and all other aging services are co-located within the Human Services Department. All Older American's Act (OAA) programs and services are offered under the umbrella of the ADRC. While also located adjacent to ADRC offices, the Adult Protective Services unit maintains its identity under the Human Services Department.

The Aging and Disability Resource Centers (ADRC's) offer the general public a no-cost, coordinated system of information and access for older people (60+), people with disabilities (17 ½-59), caregivers, family members and professionals alike seeking long-term care supports and resources. ADRC professional staff provides unbiased, objective information on a variety of public and private services and programs.

We promote individual choice using motivational interviewing, support informed decision-making, connect people with the services they need and try to minimize confusion. Our goal is to improve life experience, maintain self-sufficiency, conserve personal resources and delay or prevent the need for potentially expensive long-term care. An ADRC representative is available in person through office and home visits, by telephone, text and email, whichever is more convenient to the individual(s) seeking our assistance. Consumers are referred or transferred to the person responsible for coordinating nutrition services, transportation, and/or caregiver support; however, due to changes in the state ADRC contract, short-term case coordination to assist caregivers in accessing services will be provided by ADRC staff. This is the only OAA service that is shared.

What are the critical issues and future implications for aging services in the community?

The current growth of the population, ages 65 and older, driven largely by the baby boom generation, is unprecedented in U.S. history. As this group of people has passed through each major stage of life, baby boomers, born between 1946 and 1964, have brought both challenges and opportunities to the economy, infrastructure, and institutions of our country. We can see here that according to the US census bureau the number of Americans ages 65 and older is projected to nearly double from 2020 to 2060.

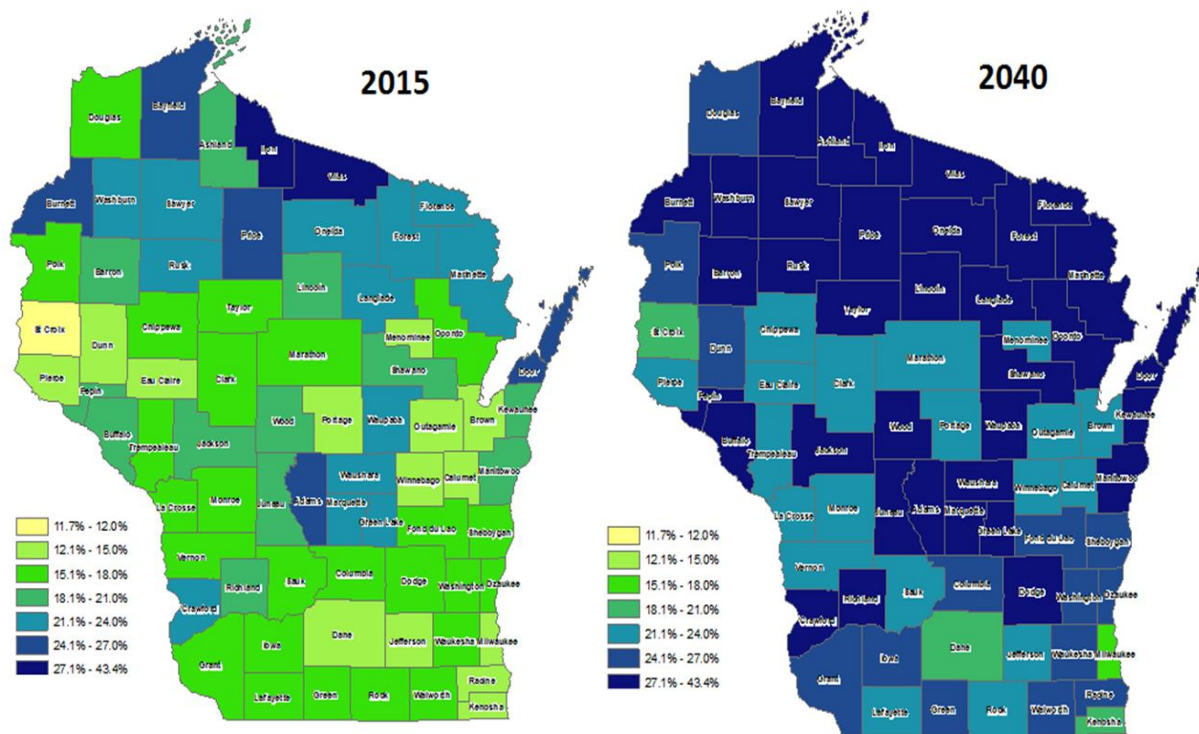

Note: Increments in years are uneven. Lighter bars indicate projections.
Source: U.S. Census Bureau, Population Estimates and Projections.

We are now starting to see the effects this group is going to have on our country as they age. By 2030, in less than 10 years, all of the baby boomers will be at least 65 years of age. And Older Americans, over the age of 65, will outnumber children for the first time in U.S. history.

We also expect to see an increase in the number of individuals in Wisconsin over the age of 65 living at or below the poverty rates. The Aging Programs were developed to first support those in the greatest need.

We know from statistics that poverty rates increase as people age, nearly doubling from the age of 60 to the ages of 85+. As our aging population grows so will the need.

This graphic demonstrates the increasing number of Wisconsinites with a diagnosis of dementia, comparing 2015 to 2040. This is one of our Aging Program's focus areas. The percentage of the population with a diagnosis of Dementia expands as the blue of the map gets darker. This prediction is based on population demographics from the DHS website. You can see here that our own Jefferson County is expected to see an increase in the percentage of individuals living with dementia, from around 15 % in 2015 up to 24% in 2040. These individuals require unique supports and services to age safely and with a high quality of life.

The ADRCs and Aging Programs of Wisconsin encompass many programs and funding streams that provide services and supports to the elderly, adults with disabilities, and individuals with Dementia and their families and caregivers. With the growth prediction we see it is clear that the need for our services is going to grow significantly over the next few years.

What are the resources and partnerships?

The Aging Unit and ADRC of Jefferson County has successfully established several resources and partnerships in our effort to support the aging community within this county. A few of these resources and Partnerships include:

Coordination Between Title III and Title VI

The coordination of services between the county aging unit, tribal aging unit and tribal member is essential to maximize efforts towards health equity within our aging programs.

The Older Americans Act (Sec.306 (6)(G) and (11) (A)(B)(C) requires aging agencies, to the maximum extent possible, to conduct outreach activities to inform Native Americans of programs and benefits under the OAA and to coordinate services provided under Title III with those services provided under Title VI.

The Aging Unit and ADRC of Jefferson County will update their marketing materials to clearly communicate that services offered are available to any tribal members living in Jefferson County. Through coordination with the appropriate tribal aging unit we will ensure the provision of services are made available to tribal members.

Organization, Structure and Leadership of the Aging Unit

The ADRC and all other aging services are co-located within the Human Services Department. All Older American's Act (OAA) programs and services are offered under the umbrella of the ADRC. While also located adjacent to ADRC offices, the Adult Protective Services unit maintains its identity under the Human Services Department.

The Aging and Disability Resource Centers (ADRC's) offer the general public a no-cost, coordinated system of information and access for older people (60+), people with disabilities (17 ½-59), caregivers, family members and professionals alike seeking long-term care supports and resources. ADRC professional staff provides unbiased, objective information on a variety of public and private services and programs.

Aging Unit Coordination with ADRCs

The ADRC and all other aging services are co-located within the Human Services Department. All Older American's Act (OAA) programs and services are offered under the umbrella of the ADRC. While also located adjacent to ADRC offices, the Adult Protective Services unit maintains its identity under the Human Services Department.

The Aging and Disability Resource Centers (ADRC's) offer the general public a no-cost, coordinated system of information and access for older people (60+), people with disabilities (17 ½-59), caregivers, family members and professionals alike seeking long-term care supports and resources. ADRC professional staff provides unbiased, objective information on a variety of public and private services and programs.

We promote individual choice using dialectical behavior therapy skills, support informed decision-making, connect people with the services they need and minimize confusion. Our goal is to improve life experience, maintain self-sufficiency, conserve personal resources and delay or prevent the need for potentially expensive long-term care. An ADRC representative is available in person through office and home visits, by telephone, text and email, whichever is more convenient to the individual(s) seeking our assistance. Consumers are referred or transferred to the person responsible for coordinating nutrition services, transportation, and/or caregiver support; however, due to changes in the state ADRC contract, short-term case coordination to assist caregivers in accessing services will be provided by ADRC staff. This is the only OAA service that is shared.

Budget Summary

The Aging Programs are funded with federal and state dollars, county tax levy, and private donations. Federal funding comes from the Older American's Act or OAA. The Older Americans Act (OAA) specifies that these funds should be directed to individuals with the greatest economic and social need "with particular attention to low-income older individuals, including low-income minority individuals, older individuals with limited English proficiency, and older individuals residing in rural areas." The growth of the aging populations in Jefferson County in the coming decades will create opportunities and challenges for our long-term supports and services. Between now and 2040, the proportion of the population age 65 and over will increase significantly. Strategic planning of program services is needed at this time to meet the demand of future consumers. Jefferson county is projected to have a slightly higher than average percentage of community members over the age of 65 in the years to come. The OAA provides the framework under which the Division's two oversight committees exist and operate.

Aging Program budgets include the Caregiver Support program. Caregiver Support includes:

- Alzheimer's Family and Caregiver Support Program (AFCSP) is funded by DHS for $35,502 in 2021. It is used to cover in-home help, medical equipment, prescriptions medications, respite care, adult daycare, assistive devices, and transportation.
- The National Family Caregiver Support Program (NFCSP) is funded by GWAAR for $37,329 in 2021, with a $12,442 County match. The program helps families sustain their efforts to care for older relatives by providing them with information, assistance, caregiver support, respite, and supplemental services. It is anticipated that APRA funding will be available for this program in 2022 and 2023.
- Supportive Services Program is funded by GWAAR for $76,434 in 2021, with an $8,493 County Match. Supportive services are intended to help people remain in their homes, with the help that they need, to meet their activities of daily living or access community services. It is anticipated that APRA funding will be available for this program in 2022 and 2023.

The Elderly Nutrition Program supports nutrition services to older adults throughout the County by providing home delivered and congregate site meals. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the congregate sites have been closed since March 2020. Funding for this program comes from GWAAR, participant donations, and MCO contributions. For 2021, GWAAR originally provided $216,955 with a $24,104 match. The Consolidated Appropriation Act of 2021 provided an additional $41,580 of funding. A separate Nutrition Supplement Incentive Program (NSIP) contract is provided by GWAAR. This funding was $20,108 in 2021, and it does not include a County match. It is anticipated that APRA funding will be available for this program in 2022 and 2023.

The Health Promotion and Disease Prevention program is funded by GWAAR for $5,060 in 2021 with a $562 County match. It is anticipated that APRA funding will be available for this program in 2022 and 2023.

The Senior Community Services Program is funded by GWAAR for $7,896 in 2021 with an $887 County match.

In addition to the amounts listed above, it is anticipated that unspent GWAAR funding from 2020 will be used to carryover and cover some 2021 costs. Finally, GWAAR allowed transfers of funding among their programs in 2021.
